READING I: ISAIAH 55: 10-11

God's word is the instrument of His will. It never fails to achieve its purpose and always remains effective.

READING II: ROMANS 8: 18-23

Paul wants his readers to know that even our heaviest sufferings in this life are far outweighed by the glory that awaits us as Christ's faithful followers.

THE GOSPEL: MATTHEW 13: 1-23

Jesus' private instructions to His disciples, after proclaiming a parable to the crowd, reflects His intent to arrange His Church hierarchically. Yet our distractions can hinder our understanding of the Word and put obstacles to our best response.

A Message from Your Rector

Dear Members of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Montclair,

First of all I would like to thank our Regional Bishop Most Rev. Manuel Cruz for his availability to come on the 4th of July to give the sacrament of Confirmation to our candidates. I also would like to congratulate the 6 candidates who have received the sacrament of Confirmation on Saturday July 4th. Let us keep them and their families in our prayers.

I also would like to remind you that on July 16 there will be an evening mass at 7 pm in honor of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. This mass will be a daily simple mass on the day of the memorial of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

The main mass of the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel will be the 11 am mass on Sunday July 19. After this Sunday Mass there will be a procession through the streets of Montclair and then, when the procession will come back at the church there will be in the hall a reception with food from our diverse community to enjoy together. Everyone is welcome to come.

I wish you a restful summer.

Fr. Giandomenico Flora
