READING I: ISAIAH 55:6-9

An appeal to seek the Lord's forgiveness as the long Babylonian exile is ending. God's mercy is too marvelous for sinners to comprehend.

READING II: PHILIPPIANS 1:20C-24, 27A

Paul does not hide his preference for martyrdom, since he knows that death is the door to eternal happiness. The outcome of his trial he also knows is entirely in God's hands.

THE GOSPEL: MATTHEW 20:1-16A

The parable focuses on God's generosity. Israel's long labor and fidelity lead to the Gentiles being included in the Covenant. Readers must know that God's decision here is not unfair, but generous, as He includes the late-arriving Gentiles as equal to His chosen people.

Bishop Michael Saporito Appointed Bishop of Metuchen

Pope Leo XIV has appointed Bishop Michael A. Saporito, Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Newark, as Bishop of the Diocese of Metuchen. Bishop Saporito has served our local Church in many ways, particularly through his ministry as Regional Bishop for Bergen County, where he has accompanied our priests, parishes, and people with great care and dedication. Cardinal Joseph W. Tobin, C.Ss.R., congratulated Bishop Saporito on his appointment, calling him “a faithful servant of the Gospel and, to me, a brother and friend.” Please join Cardinal Tobin and the faithful of the Archdiocese of Newark in praying for Bishop Saporito and the people of Metuchen as they begin this new chapter together. SWEET as HONEY

J.D., some people worked all day and
some for only a short time, but the landowner
rewarded everyone
with the same pay.

Yes Honey, and the last hired were paid first
so everyone would know
the reward is equal.

Just like Heaven,
where the reward of eternal life is the same for both long time believers
and new believers.

The Ancient Christians used to talk about the faith being “echoed” through the ages. Our faith has always been supported by four “pillars.” It is around these four, age-old pillars, that every Catholic faith formation process exists.

The first pillar is the Liturgy. The Sunday Mass is the first and most important aspect of Catholic life and faith. Everything we do comes from the Eucharist and returns to the Eucharist. Without Sunday Mass, our Catholic faith is not fully passed along. Fully celebrating the Lord’s Day as a family brings the Eucharist back to its proper place at the center and heart of any religious education process. The liturgical calendar has all the elements of the faith one needs to learn.

The second pillar is the Family. It is in the family that we learn our most important values, life lessons, and virtues. The support of Catholic families has always been integral to passing on faith to the next generation.

The third pillar is the Christian Community. The Christian Community helps and challenges us to live the Gospel message in our daily lives. We are blessed when we can be part of a community that is committed to making the world a better place through the example of Jesus Christ.

The last pillar is formal Religious Education. Unfortunately, many people believe that this pillar is the most important pillar in passing on the faith, but in fact it is not. Religious Education has taken many forms throughout our 2000 year history, but in every age, it has always served the other three pillars. The faith cannot be passed along with just a religious education (CCD) program. It is important that beyond the classroom, families practice their faith and pray together.
