READING I: EZEKIEL 18:25-28

The prophet teaches that each person is punished for his sins, and not for the sins of his ancestors. So never fear if you go astray.

READING II: PHILIPPIANS 2:1-11, OR 2:1-5

Paul appeals to his readers to have a common outlook on matters of behavior. We then come to what may have been a hymn in which Christ humbly accepts crucifixion. He thus has a name above all others.

THE GOSPEL: MATTHEW 21:28-32

The Parable of the Two Sons has to do with opposing reactions to John the Baptist's preaching. One son (or group) repents after hearing him. Another son (Israel's leaders) refuses to take John's message to heart. Those who accept the message are doing the Father's will.

A Message from Your Rector

Dear Members of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Montclair,

In this bulletin first of all I would like to thank the Florczak family who donated the piano that is now in the church and also I would like to thank the Melissa, our pianist and Josie our cantor, who performed this last Sunday 09/20 for the short concert after the 11 am mass. I would also like to thank all the volunteers who helped with the pancake fellowship afterwards in the hall and those who attended the concert and made donations to support our church and the piano maintenance.

In this bulletin I would like also to inform you that on Sunday October 11 we will have the Eucharistic Rosary Congress from 2:30 pm to 5:30 pm in the church. We will begin with the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament at 2:30 pm and we will continue saying first the joyous mysteries, then the luminous mysteries followed by the sorrowful mysteries of the rosary, all in English. At around 5 pm we will say the glorious mysteries of the rosary in Spanish taking advantage of the Spanish speaking parishioners who come to our church on Sunday evening for the 6 pm mass. Everyone is welcome to come.

I wish you a wonderful week.

Un Mensaje de Su Rector

Estimados miembros de Nuestra Señora del Monte Carmelo de Montclair,

En este boletín, quisiera ante todo agradecer a la familia Florczak que donó el piano que ahora se encuentra en nuestra iglesia. También quisiera agradecer al pianista y al cantor que participaron el pasado domingo, 20 de septiembre, en el breve concierto que se ofreció después de la Misa de las 11:00 a. m. Asimismo, quiero agradecer a todos los voluntarios que ayudaron en el convivio de panqueques que tuvo lugar después del concierto en el salón parroquial, así como a todas las personas que asistieron al concierto y realizaron donaciones para apoyar a nuestra iglesia y contribuir al mantenimiento del piano.

En este boletín también quisiera informarles que el domingo 11 de octubre tendremos el Congreso del Rosario Eucarístico, de 2:30 p. m. a 5:30 p. m. en la iglesia. Comenzaremos con la Exposición del Santísimo Sacramento a las 2:30 p. m. y continuaremos rezando primero los Misterios Gozosos, luego los Misterios Luminosos y, posteriormente, los Misterios Dolorosos del Rosario, todos en inglés. Alrededor de las 5:00 p. m., rezaremos los Misterios Gloriosos del Rosario en español, aprovechando la presencia de los feligreses de habla hispana que vienen a nuestra iglesia los domingos por la tarde para la Misa de las 6:00 p. m. Todos están cordialmente invitados a participar.

Les deseo una excelente semana.

Bishop Michael Saporito Appointed Bishop of Metuchen

Pope Leo XIV has appointed Bishop Michael A. Saporito, Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Newark, as Bishop of the Diocese of Metuchen. Bishop Saporito has served our local Church in many ways, particularly through his ministry as Regional Bishop for Bergen County, where he has accompanied our priests, parishes, and people with great care and dedication. Cardinal Joseph W. Tobin, C.Ss.R., congratulated Bishop Saporito on his appointment, calling him "a faithful servant of the Gospel and, to me, a brother and friend." Please join Cardinal Tobin and the faithful of the Archdiocese of Newark in praying for Bishop Saporito and the people of Metuchen as they begin this new chapter together. Gospel Today

Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time | Matthew 21:28-32

The older son in the parable first told his father no, I will not work, but had a change of heart and went to work in the vineyard. When we make poor choices, and have a change of heart, God forgives us and lets us try again.

“‘I will not,’ he answered, but later he changed his mind and went.”

The Ancient Christians used to talk about the faith being “echoed” through the ages. Our faith has always been supported by four “pillars.” It is around these four, age-old pillars, that every Catholic faith formation process exists.

The first pillar is the Liturgy. The Sunday Mass is the first and most important aspect of Catholic life and faith. Everything we do comes from the Eucharist and returns to the Eucharist. Without Sunday Mass, our Catholic faith is not fully passed along. Fully celebrating the Lord’s Day as a family brings the Eucharist back to its proper place at the center and heart of any religious education process. The liturgical calendar has all the elements of the faith one needs to learn.

The second pillar is the Family. It is in the family that we learn our most important values, life lessons, and virtues. The support of Catholic families has always been integral to passing on faith to the next generation.

The third pillar is the Christian Community. The Christian Community helps and challenges us to live the Gospel message in our daily lives. We are blessed when we can be part of a community that is committed to making the world a better place through the example of Jesus Christ.

The last pillar is formal Religious Education. Unfortunately, many people believe that this pillar is the most important pillar in passing on the faith, but in fact it is not. Religious Education has taken many forms throughout our 2000 year history, but in every age, it has always served the other three pillars. The faith cannot be passed along with just a religious education (CCD) program. It is important that beyond the classroom, families practice their faith and pray together.
