READING I: ISAIAH 25: 6-10A

A banquet will be set out on Mt. Zion for the entire world to attend. This is an aspect of the prophet's teaching and the fact that Jerusalem will be glorified.

READING II: PHILIPPIANS 4: 12-14, 19-20

With power coming from Christ, Paul says that he can do all things. He believes he will be given all that he needs from God's generosity.

THE GOSPEL: MATTHEW 22: 1-14, OR 22: 1-10

The Parable of the Marriage Feast is all about God's impartial treatment of all people, both Jews and Gentiles. His judgment is based on either their acceptance or their rejection of God's call.

A Message from Your Rector

Dear Members of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Montclair,

As I already said in the last bulletin, this Sunday, October 11, we will have the Eucharistic Rosary Congress, beginning at 2:30 pm until 5:30 pm.

The Eucharistic Rosary Congress, through the heart and school of the Virgin Mary, invites people to experience the power of encountering Jesus in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. People are encouraged to visit Our Lord in the Holy Eucharist and seek the intercession of His Mother, through this powerful and effective spiritual approach.

I remind you that the recitation of the mysteries of the Rosary will be in English from 2:30 pm to 5 pm. From 5 pm to 5:30 pm will be in Spanish.
All are welcome.

I also remind you that next Sunday, October 18th, the Church will observe the 100th World Mission Sunday with the theme: "One in Christ, united in mission". The second collection on October 18th will be to support the missionary efforts of the Catholic Church through the work of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith and also through the Vatican Dicastery for Evangelization.

I wish you a wonderful week

The Ancient Christians used to talk about the faith being “echoed” through the ages. Our faith has always been supported by four “pillars.” It is around these four, age-old pillars, that every Catholic faith formation process exists.

The first pillar is the Liturgy. The Sunday Mass is the first and most important aspect of Catholic life and faith. Everything we do comes from the Eucharist and returns to the Eucharist. Without Sunday Mass, our Catholic faith is not fully passed along. Fully celebrating the Lord’s Day as a family brings the Eucharist back to its proper place at the center and heart of any religious education process. The liturgical calendar has all the elements of the faith one needs to learn.

The second pillar is the Family. It is in the family that we learn our most important values, life lessons, and virtues. The support of Catholic families has always been integral to passing on faith to the next generation.

The third pillar is the Christian Community. The Christian Community helps and challenges us to live the Gospel message in our daily lives. We are blessed when we can be part of a community that is committed to making the world a better place through the example of Jesus Christ.

The last pillar is formal Religious Education. Unfortunately, many people believe that this pillar is the most important pillar in passing on the faith, but in fact it is not. Religious Education has taken many forms throughout our 2000 year history, but in every age, it has always served the other three pillars. The faith cannot be passed along with just a religious education (CCD) program. It is important that beyond the classroom, families practice their faith and pray together.
