READING I: REVELATION 7:2-4, 9-14

Blest with the seal of God's protection, the multitude of saints who were faithful throughout tribulation purify their robes for service in the heavenly temple.

READING II: 1 JOHN 3:1-3

By the grace of faith via the water and Spirit of Baptism, the sons and daughters of God share in His nature and have the dignity of being His children. As the eighth Beatitude makes explicit, they will have direct vision of Christ.

THE GOSPEL: MATTHEW 5:1-12A

The famous Sermon on the Mount contains the Law of the New Covenant, or Testament. Among the virtues, the Eighth Beatitude names "the pure of heart," in today's Second Reading, and refers to those souls undefiled by evil and lustful thoughts. These find their true treasure in heaven.

Volunteers are currently needed to teach Spanish to seminarians, mostly native English speakers, at Seton Hall University's School of Theology. If you have an hour, or more, a week to help these future priests improve their language skills to better spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ, please contact Chandler S. Cohen, program director at chandler.cohen@shu.edu or 973 - 761 - 9226. Gracias!

A Message from Your Rector

Dear Members of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Montclair,

This year the Solemnity of All Saints falls on a Sunday, therefore it will be celebrated following the same schedule of the Sunday Masses.

The Mass of Remembrance for All Souls will be celebrated November 2nd at 7 pm. All are welcomed.

Once again, I remind you that we began the classes for the religious education program for children. Parents who would like to register their children should do it as soon as possible.

I wish you a wonderful week.

Un Mensaje de Su Rector

Estimados miembros de Nuestra Señora del Monte Carmelo de Montclair, Este año, la Solemnidad de Todos los Santos cae en domingo, por lo tanto, se celebrará siguiendo el horario habitual de las misas dominicales.

La Misa de Conmemoración de los Fieles Difuntos se celebrará el 2 de noviembre a las 7:00 p. m. Todos están cordialmente invitados.

Una vez más, les recuerdo que ya comenzaron las clases del programa de educación religiosa para niños. Los padres que deseen inscribir a sus hijos deben hacerlo lo antes posible.

Les deseo una excelente semana.

Fr. Giandomenico Flora

Our Lady of Mount Carmel cordially invites you to a Special Liturgy to commemorate

All Souls' Mass of Remembrance

Monday ● November 2, 2026 ● 7:00pm

OLMC Montclair will continue our annual tradition of a special Mass of Remembrance on Monday, November 2nd at 7:00 pm. During this Mass, we will honor and pray for our parishioners and their families who have experienced the loss of a loved one, especially those who have died during the past year, November 1, 2025, through October 31st, 2026.

We warmly invite you, your family, and your friends to join us as a parish family to remember those we have lost, pray for their eternal rest, and offer comfort and support to one another. Please extend this invitation to others who may find strength and consolation through our shared faith and prayer.

Whether or not you are able to attend, please be assured of the prayers of OLMC for all those called home to God and for the families and loved ones who continue to mourn their absence. Please email the Parish Office at office.olmcmontclair@gmail.com if you have a loved one being honored this year and plan to attend the Mass.

The Ancient Christians used to talk about the faith being “echoed” through the ages. Our faith has always been supported by four “pillars.” It is around these four, age-old pillars, that every Catholic faith formation process exists.

The first pillar is the Liturgy. The Sunday Mass is the first and most important aspect of Catholic life and faith. Everything we do comes from the Eucharist and returns to the Eucharist. Without Sunday Mass, our Catholic faith is not fully passed along. Fully celebrating the Lord’s Day as a family brings the Eucharist back to its proper place at the center and heart of any religious education process. The liturgical calendar has all the elements of the faith one needs to learn.

The second pillar is the Family. It is in the family that we learn our most important values, life lessons, and virtues. The support of Catholic families has always been integral to passing on faith to the next generation.

The third pillar is the Christian Community. The Christian Community helps and challenges us to live the Gospel message in our daily lives. We are blessed when we can be part of a community that is committed to making the world a better place through the example of Jesus Christ.

The last pillar is formal Religious Education. Unfortunately, many people believe that this pillar is the most important pillar in passing on the faith, but in fact it is not. Religious Education has taken many forms throughout our 2000 year history, but in every age, it has always served the other three pillars. The faith cannot be passed along with just a religious education (CCD) program. It is important that beyond the classroom, families practice their faith and pray together.
