READING I: WISDOM 6:12-16

Personified as a woman, Wisdom becomes accessible to all those who desire her. She becomes a guide to the kingdom of God in the best way.

READING II: 1 THESSALONIANS 4:13-18

Paul comforts the bereaved with the hope of the resurrection. The righteous dead will be raised in glory and gathered together in Christ.

THE GOSPEL: MATTHEW 25:1-13

The parable of the Ten Maidens emphasizes the need for watchfulness. We are all called to be spiritually prepared because we just do not know the moment of the Second Coming of Jesus as our Judge.

A Message from Your Rector

Dear Members of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Montclair,

First of all I would like to thank all of you who have been praying for my health because on Thursday 10/29 I underwent a procedure at St. Michael Hospital and, thanks be to God, everything went well. Of course, there is a follow up that I need to do in the near future but, for the moment everything went fine.

Also, I would like to bring to your attention that on Sunday November 22nd an Catholic priest from Italy will concelebrate the 11 am mass and therefore, on that day, the mass will be bilingual, mainly in English but with few parts in Italian. The priest from Italy will bring with him an Icon called the Jubilee Icon that has been used for the International Pilgrimage of Mercy. In November 2023 Pope Francis entrusted this icon with the mission of being carried to churches and squares throughout the world until 2033, the Jubilee Year in which we will celebrate the two thousand anniversary of the Redemption.
The icon will be on display during the mass. Right after the mass I will ask the Italian priest to explain the icon and after everyone is invited to go downstairs in the hall for a fellowship.

A wish you a wonderful week.

Un Mensaje de Su Rector

Estimados miembros de Nuestra Señora del Monte Carmelo de Montclair,

En primer lugar, quisiera agradecerles a todos los que han estado rezando por mi salud. El jueves 29 de octubre me sometí a un procedimiento médico en el Hospital St. Michael y, gracias a Dios, todo salió muy bien. Por supuesto, tendré que realizarme un control médico de seguimiento en un futuro cercano, pero, por el momento, todo salió bien.

También quisiera informarles que el domingo 22 de noviembre un sacerdote católico de Italia concelebrará la Misa de las 11:00 a. m. Por este motivo, ese día la Misa será bilingüe, principalmente en inglés, pero incluirá algunas partes en italiano.

El sacerdote italiano traerá consigo un ícono llamado Ícono del Jubileo, que ha sido utilizado para la Peregrinación Internacional de la Misericordia. En noviembre de 2023, el papa Francisco encomendó a este ícono la misión de recorrer iglesias y plazas de todo el mundo hasta el año 2033, Año Jubilar en el que celebraremos los dos mil años de la Redención.

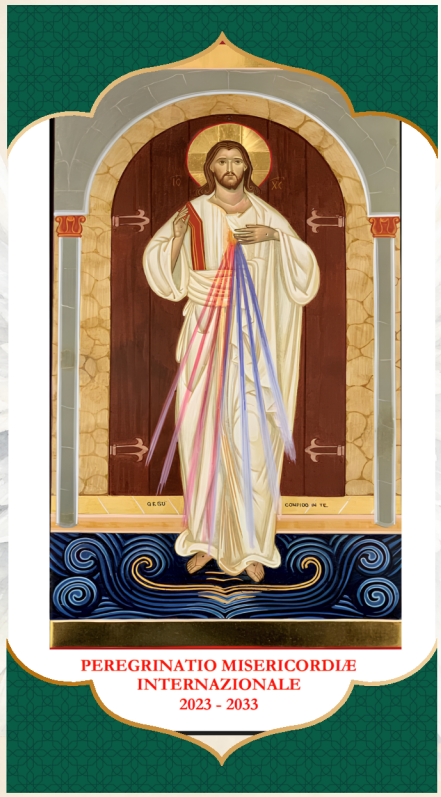

El ícono estará expuesto durante la Misa. Inmediatamente después, le pediré al sacerdote italiano que nos explique el significado del ícono. Luego, todos están invitados a bajar al salón parroquial para compartir un momento de fraternidad y convivencia.
Les deseo a todos una maravillosa semana.
